DISCOVER YOUR VOCAL ESSENCE

This course will be particularly helpful for:

Beginners who wish to learn how to sing from scratch as adults and don't know where to start

Individuals who were previously interested in singing but gave up because of lack of confidence, being shy or negative judgments

People in public professions, bloggers, and those looking to unlock their voice to succeed in their work, private life, and social networks

Designed specifically for beginners

During the course, we will work together with each student to:

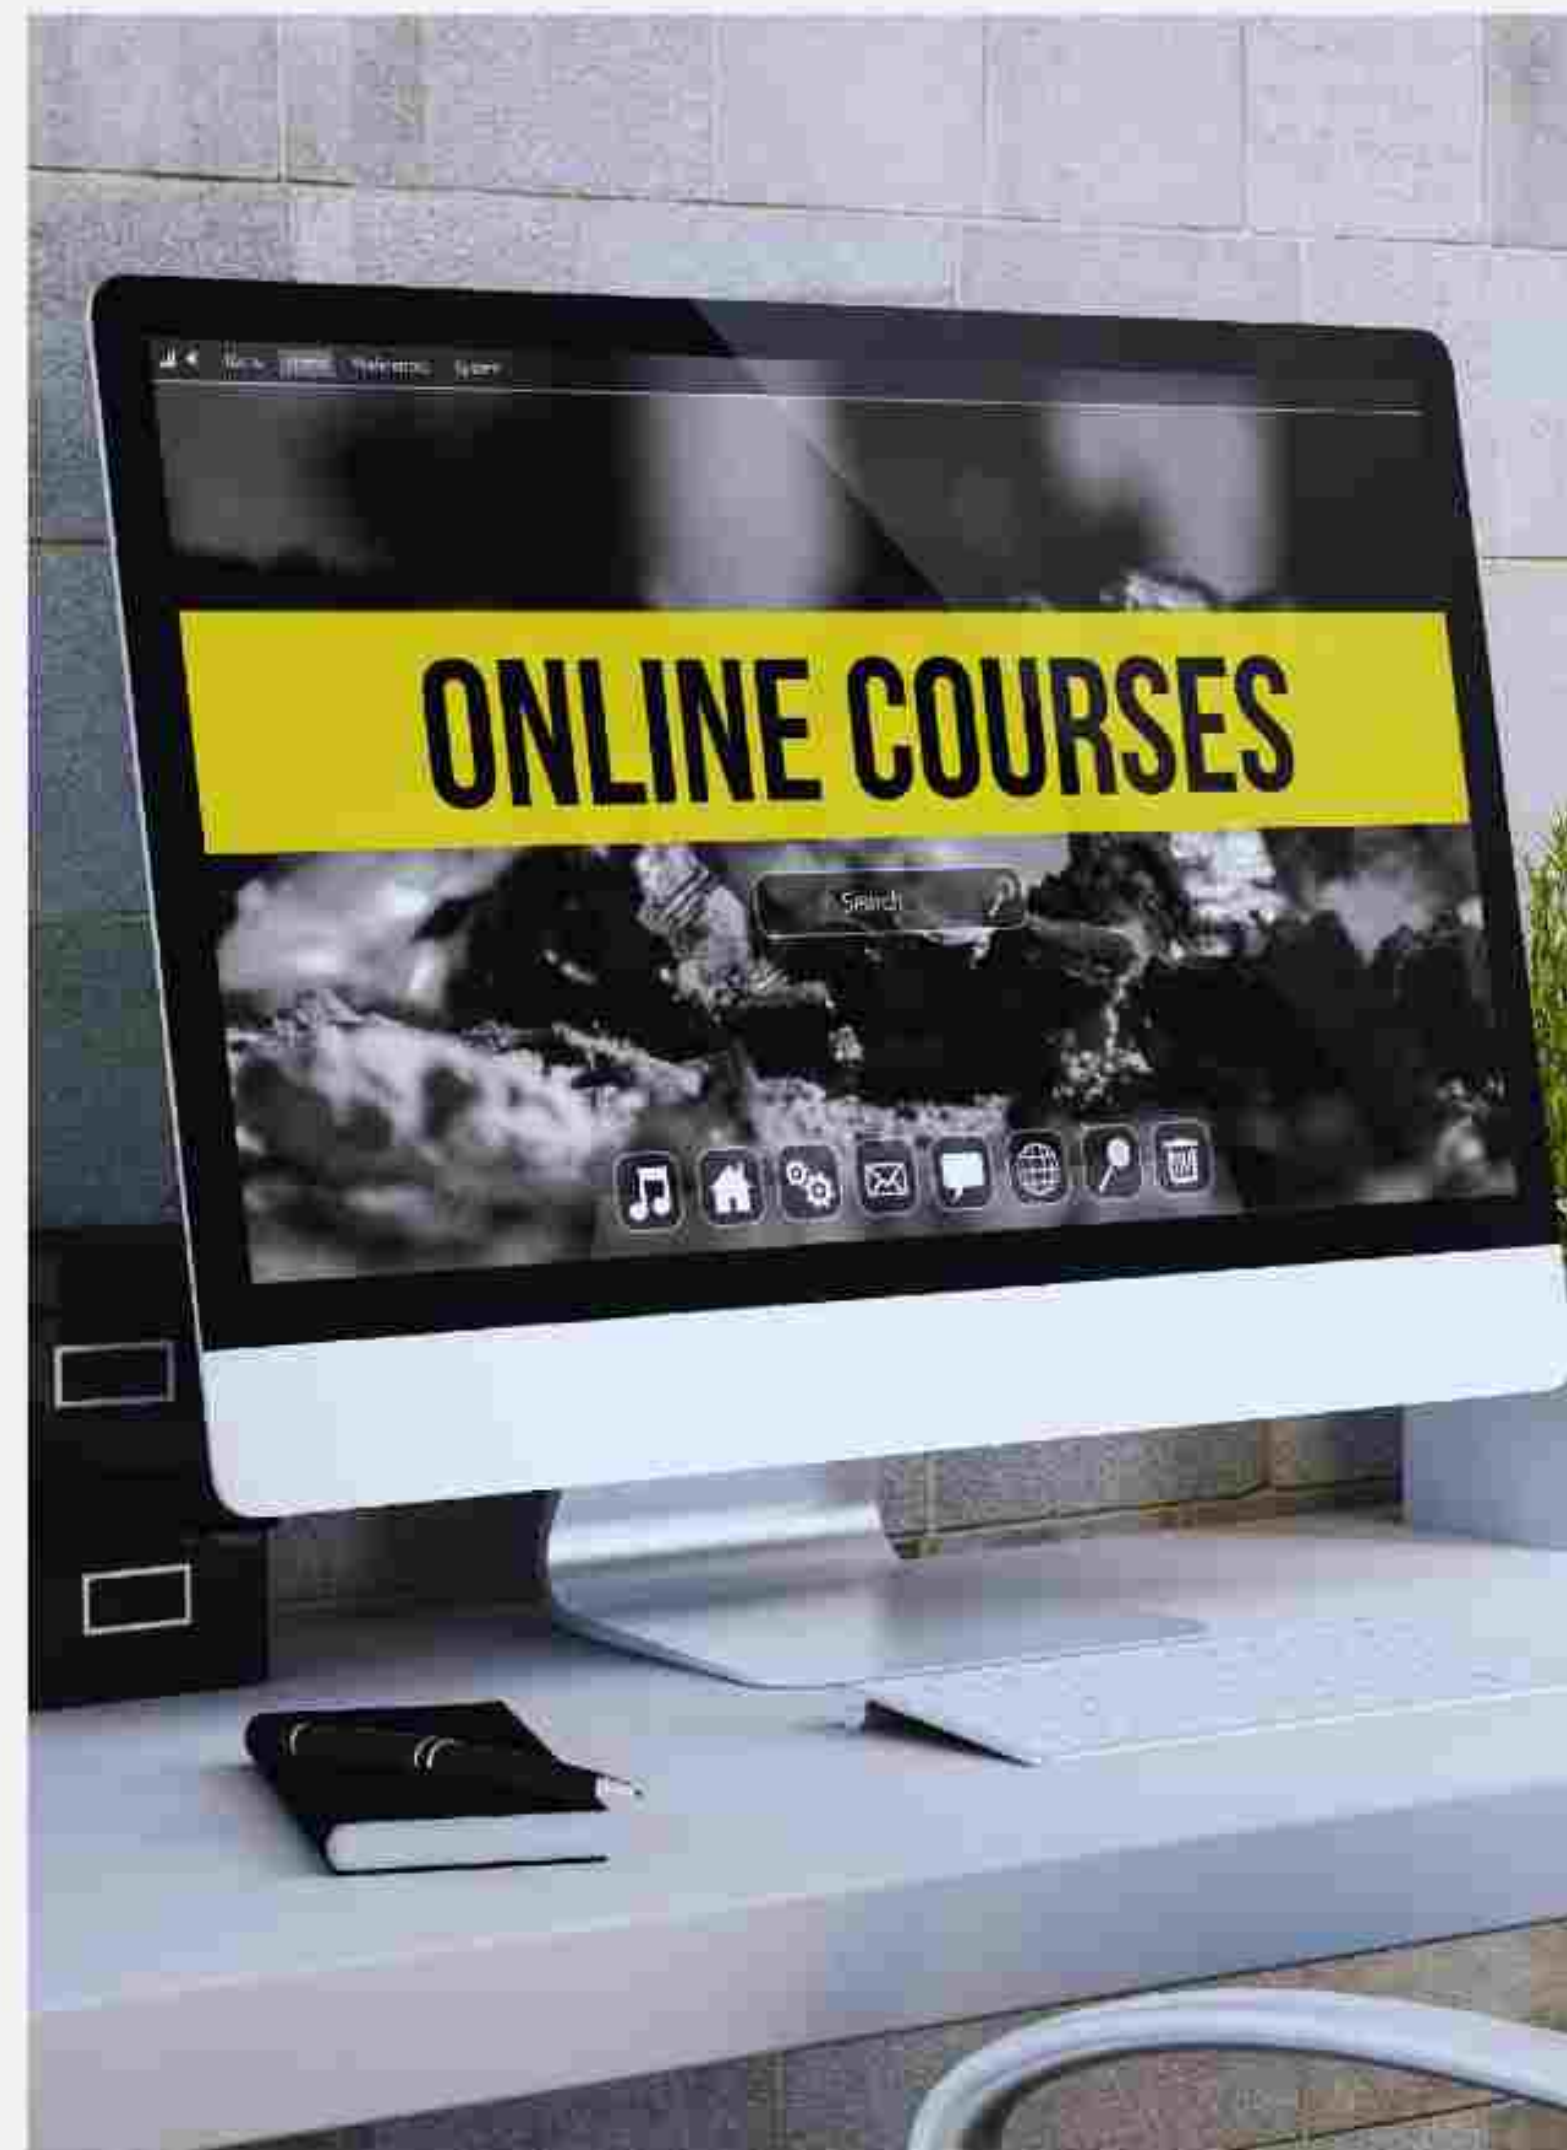

- set up vocal technique and breathing
- discover the authentic beauty of your voice sound
- develop the ability to communicate emotions through singing
- experiment with different musical styles
- boost self-confidence
- create a supportive and motivating environment

REVIEWS

Thanks to our vocal coach, Olesia Mamonenko, for her amazing talent and sense of humor. For me, your kindness is an example of a loving soul. Thank you for helping us train until the end, adapting to all timing changes.

I would like to highlight the voice module and thank Olesia a lot for her hard work and dedication! I always wanted to sing with the help of a professional, and I am happy that my dream came true.

Dear Olesia. I would like to thank you for your artistic work. I have always wanted to try myself and explore this direction - working with the voice. Singing! Thanks to you, your talent, with girls we learned a song, analyzed it by notes, selected our lines, and performed a beautiful meaningful song. I am very happy about our productive collaboration. Thank you for your work.

Olesia, I would like to share my feedback with you. For me, this course was so valuable, especially considering how you guided us, me in particular. It's priceless. Personally, my experience... you know, you helped me to open up because, in general, I found it difficult to sound. And I tried to do the exercises in the group despite fear and embarrassment, I tried to switch off my professionalism so as not to think about how it was going at that moment, and fully trust the process, trust you. I think this is the most important thing when you trust your master, your teacher. Without this trust, I think it's difficult to build any relationships. But in your case, you know how to find an approach for each student, choose the words that are needed at the moment, support. And also, what's valuable is that you give even more than what's in the program. And it's visible, and it immediately reveals you, that you really burn with your work and want to help people. And I wish you great success in this. You are wonderful, and I'm glad we met.
